

National Youth Week Ambassadors 2017

Cassie Boyle, 18 from the Central Australia Region

Cassie is an 18 year old Aboriginal woman from Alice Springs. Cassie finished Year 12 in 2016 and is a current member of the Northern Territory Youth Round Table.

Cassie has lived in the Territory for 16 years and her favourite thing about it is the culture and people.

Cassie has been involved in a number of youth programs including the Foundation for Young Australians IMPACT Leadership Program and the Garma Festival Youth Forum.

Cassie wanted to be involved in National Youth Week because she is passionate about effecting change in her community and advancing youth culture.
