

National Youth Week Ambassadors 2017

Leicolhn McKellar, 25 from the East/West Arnhem Region

Leicolhn is a 2016 member of the Chief Minister's Round Table of Young Territorians and is studying a Bachelor of Social Science and a Certificate II in Community Health Research. Leicolhn is a young Aboriginal woman and works as a youth worker in Gove. Leicolhn is well connected to the young people and community groups within Gove.

Leicolhn believes National Youth Week is a fantastic opportunity to celebrate young people, provide a safe platform for diverse expression and celebrate the skills, talents and ideas of young Territorians.

Throughout National Youth Week Leicolhn is most looking forward to celebrating with other young people in East Arnhem, she is in awe of their wit, their intelligence and their fun-loving nature!
