

National Youth Week Ambassadors 2017

Natasha Evans, 19 from the Barkly Region

Natasha has lived in the Territory for 18 years and is a 2016 member of the Northern Territory Youth Round Table. Natasha is studying a Bachelor of Arts (Psychology) through Deakin University and works full time as a Taking Action to Tackle Suicide Project Officer.

Natasha is a young Aboriginal woman that has incredibly well-established networks throughout Tennant Creek. Natasha is passionate about ensuring young people in Tennant Creek are provided with opportunities to get involved in youth week.

Natasha got involved with National Youth Week to improve the lives of young people in regional and remote communities in the Barkly Region.

