

2017 Northern Territory Youth Round Table

Video Bio Transcript

Patrick Walker

Hi I'm Patrick, I'm 16 and I'm from Nhulunbuy. I am passionate about giving the youth in our community a voice.

Mollie Graham

Hi I'm Mollie I'm 17 and I'm from Nhulunbuy. I joined the Round Table because I am really passionate about closing the gap between Indigenous and non-Indigenous youth in my community.

Kelvin Ganambarr

Transcript not available*

Alicia Kent

Hi I'm Alicia. I'm 23 and from the Darwin Region. I am really passionate about supporting young people to support each other.

Matthew Shaw

Hi I'm Matthew, I'm 17 years old and I'm from the Darwin region. I am looking forward to this year on the Round Table especially trying to close the disconnect between young people and politics.

Cindy Um

Hi I'm Cindy, I'm 16 from the Darwin Region and I am passionate about creating opportunities for STEM and business students in the NT.

Zak Borges-Nunes

My name is Zak. I am 17 from the Darwin Region. My purpose in joining the Youth Round Table was to recognise the voices of young people in my community.

Khayla De Ausen

My name is Khayla De Ausen. I was born and bred in Darwin. The reason why I joined the Round Table was because I want to be the voice of young parents and focusing on their issues and surroundings.

Chris Teng

Hi I'm Chris, I'm 20 years old and I'm from the Darwin region. I joined the Youth Round Table so I could find community based solutions on how we can get young people more involved in volunteering.

Kyaw Naing John Yusuf

Hello everyone, my name is Kyaw Naing John Yusuf. I'm 25 years old. I am a young carer, and one of the reasons why I am involved in the NT Youth Round Table is to make a difference for myself and also for my community, particularly with the young carers.

Cassie Boyle

Hi I'm Cassie, I'm 18 from Alice Springs. I joined the Round Table to try and stop substance misuse in my Community.

Brooke Johnston

Hi I'm Brooke, I'm 16 and I'm from Alice Springs. I joined the Youth Round Table because I want to help make a difference in my community and empower youth.

Steven Lawton

Hey my name is Steven Lawton, 24 from Tennant creek. Why did I join the Round Table? I guess I want to make a change in my community. I want to see more Indigenous youth becoming leaders. I want to do what I can to help break the cycle of alcohol and drug abuse in Tennant. There are other issues like overcrowded houses – I want to try and help out where I can and do what I can to try and make a difference. I also want to see a lot more of our Indigenous youth graduating year 12 – that is something I am very passionate about. I want to see more Indigenous kids up graduating year 12 and becoming leaders.

Phoebe Hooper

My name is Phoebe, I'm 17 from the Katherine region. I am really passionate about giving LGBT people in the Northern Territory a voice.

Leah Sharp

I'm Leah, I'm from the Katherine region and I'm 17. I am part of the NT Youth Round Table and my passions are to give Millennials a voice.

Esiah Jones

Hi my name is Esiah Jones and I am from Urapunja which is Utopia, north/east of Alice Springs. I am in the Round Table to talk about issues of education with young people in my community. It is important to talk about things like that.